CAVALCADE-1970

STUDENT LIFE
MOODS

Allen County Public Library
900 Webster Street
PO Box 2270
Fort Wayne, IN 46801-2270

*School is what you make it.
That is more than a saying without meaning.
Consider it as years of your life.
Put your hands around it
And make it big and proud,
Or be small and alone.
Scared but triumphant
Or without direction.
Learn the self discipline
And the satisfaction of giving and getting
Or don't.
School is what you make it.
So make it.*

ACADEMIC

MOODS

Surrounded . . .

Absorbed in atmospheric knowledge

Equations, and anthologies rush

to the arts and hold

The scope to genius.

Unfold furled leaves of the brain

Declensions, conjugations understand the meaning of meaning and touch

Natural representation of expression.

Comprehend, unjumble confusions,

And you will know what it is to have learned

SPORTS MOODS

No one really sees the finish line,

A set shot, or a two-base hit.

No one except the player;

His feat is reward for hours of work,

A childhood dream come true.

*A dream of heroism with a rusty water
pistol;*

Of gracefully floating across, down

On the crossbar of a two-wheeled silver stallion.

It is a buttress of hope that holds the head high

And welds the shoulders into twin barracades;

Against the unknown, the future.

*I want to . . . I am . . . I will . . .
I must.*

FALL MOODS

Fall feels and knows it is the real beginning . . .

How like a hurricane . . .

The whirling vortex . . .

The deceptive eye of calm.

Mr. Hayes: A quick smile, a rare moment of relaxation.

Mrs. Nicodemus, Mr. Dillon, Miss Shanks:
"This has to go out right away!"

Mr. Nelson: First man of sports.

2 1022 02501 7001

Mrs. Warner: "May I help you?"

Mrs. Torok: A quiet morning, endless records, study halls.

Mrs. Hohman: "Study hall teachers aren't supposed to smile . . . or chew gum!"

Run for the running! The prize is yourself . . . your school.

Culver's cross-country compiled a perfect season of 12 wins and no losses. The Cavaliers were led by Juan Ruiz, who ran number one for Culver in all the meets. Brian Crosley and Dave Campbell ran second and third respectively for C.C.H.S.

Culver's harriers did exceptionally well in invitational meets. They took first place in the New Prairie Invitational and second place at Shortridge. At the County meet we had the first two places to take home the trophy for the second year in a row.

With two strong freshmen returning and three sophomores along with one junior, next year's prospects for a winning season look good.

The brief before the battle.

The rebuilding season is one season that everyone dreads. This was the case at C.C.H.S. this year. Practically everyone who played on last year's excellent team left us in May. Faced with only one returning letterman, John Bauer, Coach Haskell had no choice but to experiment, and that's what the 1969-70 season was all about. Even though the lineup contained everyone the Coach could get his hands on, victories were like finding needles in a haystack.

Senior John Bauer led the 2-18 Cavaliers in both total points and free-throw shooting. But, what is probably more important to underclassmen, is the fact that Junior Denny Reinholt led in field-goal shooting and Sophomore Stu Manchester grabbed the most rebounds. The area teams will be seeing a lot more of these two in the year to come. With an abundance of experience Cavalier fans should look forward to a fine 1970-71 season.

Always attentivé, ready to leap.

Varsity—KNEELING: Stu Manchester, Jim Bauer, Jack Graham, Dennis Reinholt, John Bauer. STANDING: Coach Haskell, Ken Matzat, Perry White, Don Ehlinger, Richard Ruhnow, Steve Reinholt, Senior manager Fred May.

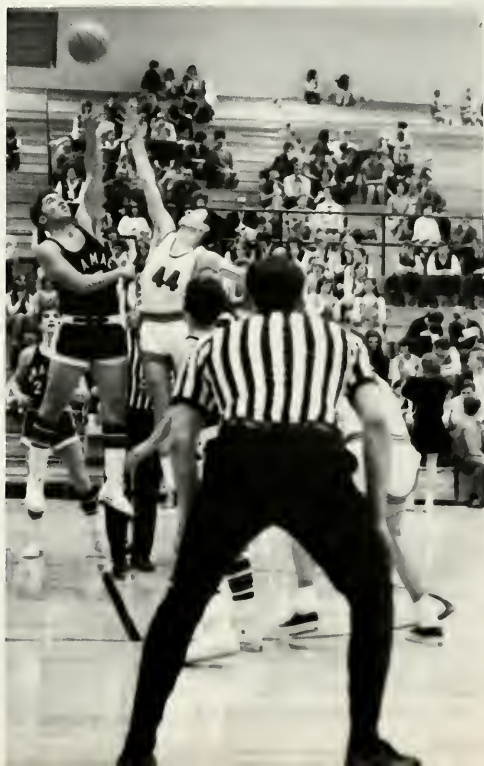

Reserve—KNEELING: Don Master, Mike Stephens, Doug Mikesell, Lynn Flora, Bruce Snyder. STANDING: Tim Overmyer, Larry Peters, Steve Crowel, Mike Bauer, Bob Rans, Robert Marton, Coach McIntire.

Each Year there is always one team that seems to get the least amount of recognition. That team is the B-Team, Junior-Varsity. Reserves, or just about anything you may want to call them. They've passed their Frosh initiation but, to most, they are yet unable to be fully accepted as ball players. They play their games (some call them scrimmages) before a sparse crowd, which at times seems to pay more attention to neighbor hunting than actual contest, and act as a meager entree before the main course. What few people want to accept is that the school's basketball future is before their eyes.

When looking back over this season's record, although it stands at 6-13, things are not as bad as they seem. Early in the year their record stood at 5-3 with two of the losses by just three points. Then, because of the Varsity's troubles, the B-Team began to split up trying to help their elders while their own record took a sudden dip. Over all, this should work out well because next year's Varsity won't be lacking in the experience department.

Graceful, but yet not unique.

The Frosh Cavaliers turned in a comparatively impressive record of nine wins and fifteen losses. Mel Thomas ran up a season high of 123 points. Ron King, who was absent from the squad at the critical part of the season, led the team with a ten-point average and fourteen rebounds per game. Next year's B-Team has the potential of becoming a strong threat to area teams.

The fast break pays off.

*Ambition beneath perspiration and liniment . . .
Strength and speed . . .
A universal language*

Sitting: Steve Jones, Paul Salyer, Jim Warner, Jeff Vernum. Kneeling: Ronnie Humes, Juan Ruiz, Don Howell, Dave Campbell. Standing: Bill Miller, Joe Wojdyla, Steve Ruiz, Alan Huys, Andy Davidson, Jim Baker, Kent Lucas, Dennis Mackey, Bill Bennett, Coach Crosley.

This year's grapplers suffered a hard season. Hampered by injuries throughout the year, the Cavaliers struggled to obtain a record of two wins and nine losses in dual matches. Next year's prospects look better with all but three varsity letter winners returning. They have hopes for a better season with the experience that they have received.

Juan Ruiz came through on top this year with a record of thirteen wins and four losses. He also compiled the highest amount of points during the season; 72. Don Howell, however, had the quickest pin of the year against Cass; 51 seconds.

GRADUATION, 1970!

A black and white photograph showing a view through a diamond-patterned metal grate, likely a fence or barrier. In the background, a parade float is visible, featuring a large, light-colored, rectangular structure. The float is partially obscured by the grate. The scene is dimly lit, with the float appearing as a bright area against a darker background. The grate's pattern is prominent in the foreground, creating a grid-like effect over the entire image.
